LENIN'S A SWIFT WALKER

This exclusive photograph, direct from Russia, shows Lenin leading his sister a merry pace through the streets of Moscow. The iact that she can't keep up seems to be causing the Bolshevist chief no great concern. Note the auto standing at the curb. Yes, they still have them in Russia.

EASY TO CARRY A LOG THIS LARGE

Anybody can tote a log of huge size—if it is balsa wood. This wood was scorned for years. Now it is regarded as one of nature's most valuable products. It is lighter than cork, as durable as spruce, the very thing for airplane wings. A boy can carry a fair-sized log, but it takes a strong man to break a stick of the wood.
